

Here are a couple of reasons why we are different.

Our Clients – Your best interests are our priority. Destinations Cafe has a long-standing record of fighting for our client's rights and our travel professionals are required to adhere to a strict Code of Ethics, giving you the confidence in us that we will succeed in making your vacation memorable and without risk.

Service - We are knowledgeable and very active in the industry. We provide education, training and resource materials to our agents to equip them with the tools to offer the highest quality of service & Accuracy.

We will go the Extra Mile – our agents work for you and will do everything they can to meet your travel needs. Destinations cafe agents literally go that extra mile to make absolutely that our clients are the number one reason we are here. We are here to earn your business, not to compete for it.
